

Iranian electrical distribution box shell manufacturer

Article Overview

Key Iranian manufacturers of electrical distribution box shells include AlfaBargh, Emen Ista Electric (EISECO), Darian, and Iran Box Industrial Group.

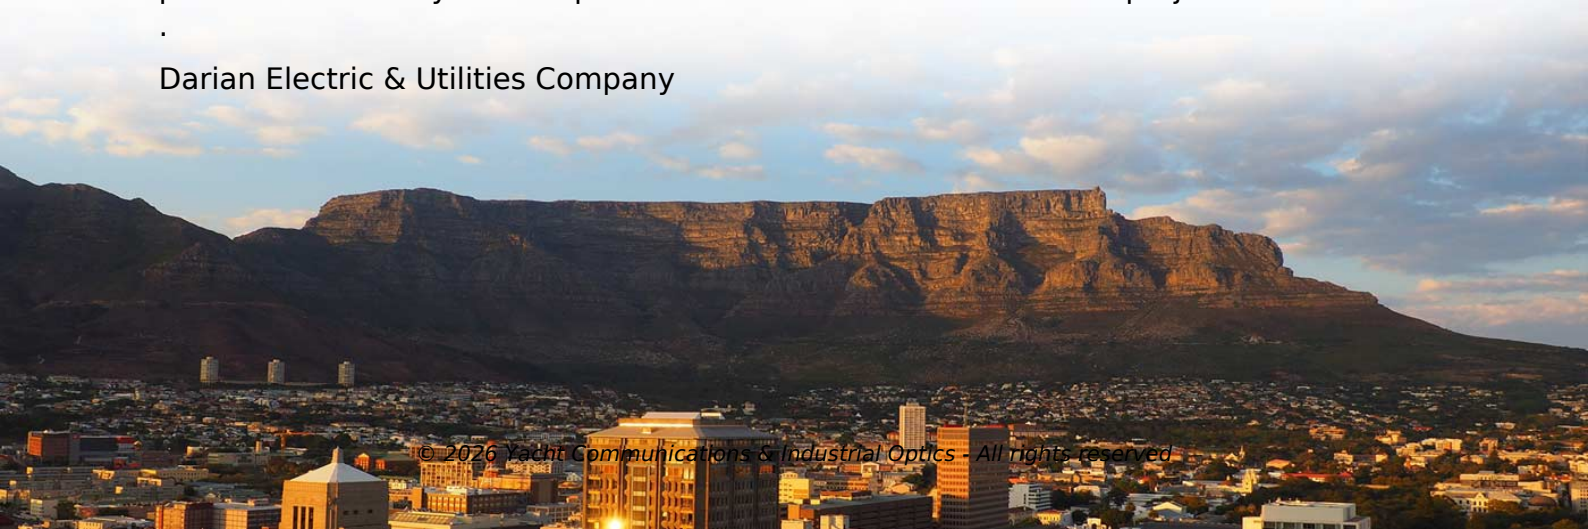

AlfaBargh Company

Founded in 1984, AlfaBargh is one of Iran's oldest electrical industry manufacturers. The company specializes in designing, supplying, and manufacturing low-voltage and medium-voltage panels, compact substations, and related electrical enclosures. They also provide systems such as BMS, RTU, relay protection, PLC controllers, and MCC panels, making them a comprehensive provider for electrical distribution solutions in Iran .

Emen Ista Electric Company (EISECO)

EISECO, part of Nikan Holding, focuses on electrical panels, junction boxes, and GRP composite enclosures using the SMC (Sheet Molding Compound) method. Established from the expertise of Noor Ista Plastic Company in 1998, EISECO produces durable, corrosion-resistant electrical panels suitable for high-humidity environments. Their products are widely used in power distribution and infrastructure projects across Iran .
